

Sermon Notes for Matthew 22:1-14

How many verses are in the book of Matthew? _____

In the rabbinic parable the King has a feast for His subjects. Who is the feast for in Jesus' parable?

- A.) Also for His subjects
- B.) His Son
- C.) His Army
- D.) His Queen

In the Rabbinic parable the wise wait outside the palace for the feast. What is different in Jesus' parable?

- A.) The wise wait outside the gate
- B.) The wise continue to work in the fields
- C.) There is no one waiting outside the palace for the summons of the King
- D.) The wise wait in the inner court of the palace

Who is Palagius and how does his teaching contradict what Christ taught here?

Why was it so awful for a man attending the feast to not have wedding robes?

- A.) It is a sign of dishonor to the Son
- B.) The robes were given at the door by the King
- C.) He has no excuse for not wearing what he was given
- D.) All the Above

What two things does Jesus reveal by the end of His parable, especially in connection to the rabbinic parables.

- A.) All men are by nature not prepared for the feast, and their righteousness must be given to them by God.
- B.) Personal good deeds earns your right to attend the feast.
- C.) Actual righteousness and holy living is necessary to stay at the feast.
- D.) A and C