

Sermon Notes on Matthew 19:27-20:16

What is Peter really asking?

- A.) What is our cut?
- B.) What is our future?
- C.) What is your will?
- D.) Where are we going next?

What makes our inheritance so great?

- A.) No more tears
- B.) No more pain
- C.) We will reign with Christ
- D.) No more curse

Why is the landowner continually seeking hired hands?

- A.) He did not plan well and has too few workers.
- B.) The grape harvest is upon him and he has to hurry to get them picked.
- C.) His workers he hired first are lazy and working too slowly.
- D.) He is being generous to those who were not given work for the day.

What did the first and last workers to be hired get paid?

- A.) Equal amounts.
- B.) The last got paid more than the first.
- C.) The first got paid more than the last.
- D.) They were paid by how many hours they worked.

What do the phrases “The first shall be last and the last first” and “the last shall be first and the first last” mean?

A.) Those who succeed in this life will fail in the next and those who fail in this life will succeed in the next.

B.) Those who are kind in this life will succeed in the next and those who are unkind in this life will fail in the next.

C.) First and last are the same

D.) Those who are lowly will be lifted up and those who are arrogant will be put down