

Sermon Notes on Matthew 22:23-33

Why does Matthew remind us that the Sadducees did not believe in the resurrection?

- A.) It was not a major theological teaching of the Sadducees
- B.) It will pertain directly to the text in question
- C.) Their view on the resurrection was not always clear
- D.) A and B

T/F The story for the question the Sadducees ask is both believable and biblical

What two suppositions did the Sadducees make?

- A.) The resurrection was only for the Jews
- B.) There was no resurrection
- C.) If there was a resurrection it would be continuing the same life they had before they died.
- D.) If there was a resurrection we would be much different than we are now

T/F Natural man does not understand the scriptures or the power of God, nor do they want to.

T/F Our resurrected bodies will be exactly like the bodies we have now without sin.

How does Exodus 3:6 prove there is life after death?

- A.) God is the God of those who have died but He continues to be their God
- B.) God is the Great I AM and can raise them up from the dead
- C.) God promises that death will not be the end
- D.) God speaks to someone who is dead

T/F Jesus' knowledge on the resurrection and the scriptures proves that He is not a mere man
