

Sermon Notes on Matthew 24. 29-3.5

- | | |
|------------------------|--|
| A.) Futurist | <input type="checkbox"/> Non-Dispensational Premillennialism |
| B.) Preterist | <input type="checkbox"/> Amillennialism |
| C.) Preterist-Futurist | <input type="checkbox"/> All has happened |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> Postmillennialism |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> Some has happened |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> Premillennialism |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> All has yet to happen |

T/F The words “immediately after” could mean that there will be a significant delay between what Jesus just said and what is about to happen.

What are the two human perspectives of the second coming of the Son of Man?

- A.) Hope
- B.) Judgment
- C.) Confusion
- D.) None of the Above
- E.) A and B

T/F Even if all creation is destroyed, Jesus says His word will endure